

OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

Philanthropy from the Eyes of

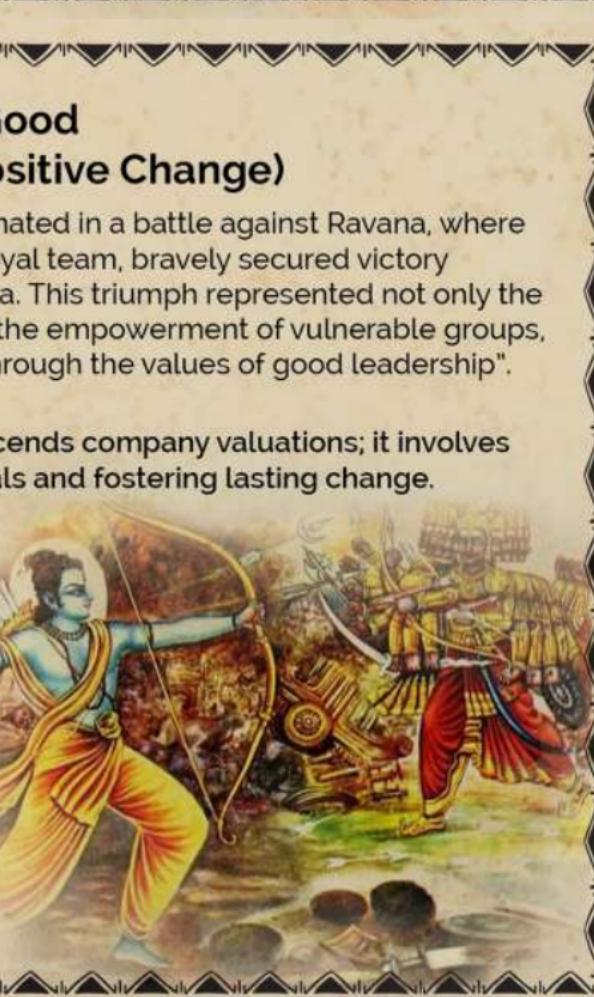

RAMAYANA

Duty, Righteousness & Sacrifice (Dharma)

"King Dasharatha was blessed with four sons, the noblest being Rama. When Queen Kaikeyi demanded her boon, Rama was exiled for 14 years, and Bharata was given the throne. Honouring his father's word, Rama accepted his fate and left for the forest".

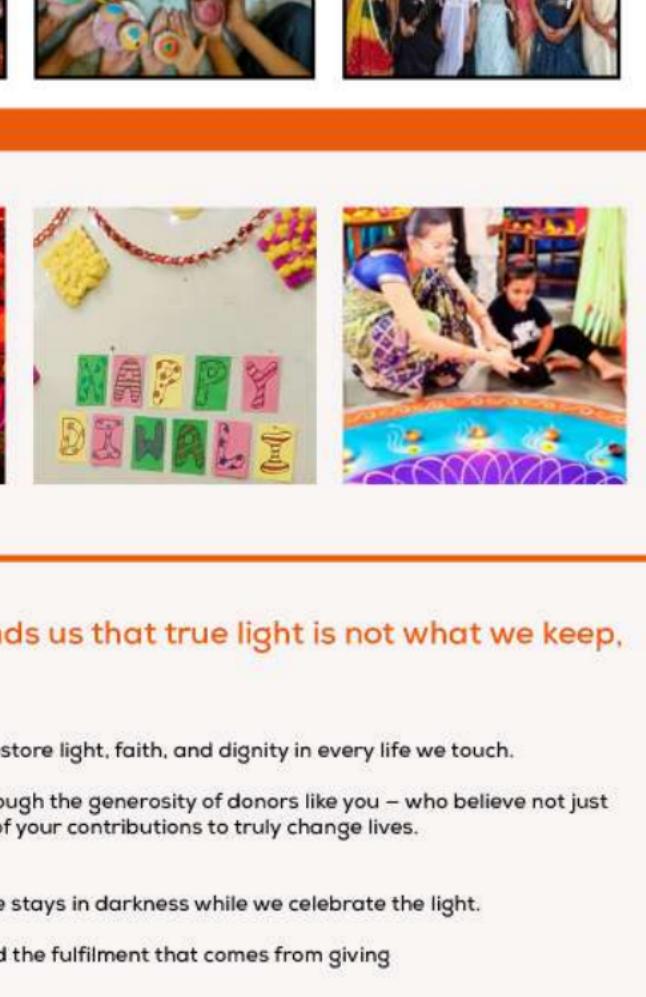

True leadership shines when we prioritize the greater good and uplift others along the way.

Selfless Service (Trust & Partnership)

"Rama's brother Lakshmana and Hanuman remained unwaveringly loyal, demonstrating that their faith and teamwork enabled them to overcome challenges. Their bond illustrates that great endeavors succeed when trust and partnerships lead the way".

Trust fosters lasting change. This Diwali, may the trust among non-profits, donors, and communities illuminate the path to sustainable social impact.

The Ramayana reminds us that true light is not what we keep, but what we share.

At Let It Count, we strive to restore light, faith, and dignity in every life we touch.

This is made possible only through the generosity of donors like you – who believe not just in our work, but in the power of your contributions to truly change lives.

This Diwali, let's ensure no one stays in darkness while we celebrate the light.

Wishing you love, warmth, and the fulfillment that comes from giving.

Saatvika & Team Let It Count

Chat with our Founder – Saatvika

Copyright (C) 2025 Let It Count. All rights reserved.
You're receiving this newsletter due to your valued connection with Let It Count.

Our mailing address is:

Let It Count 307, CS Naidu Arcade, Greater Kailash Road, Old Palasia Indore,

Madhya Pradesh 452001 India

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe.

